CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

9. Placing an order to purchase or sell a security for the account of a client without written authority to do so is a dishonest or unethical business practice.
10. Inducing trading in a clients account that is excessive in size or frequency in view of the financial recourses, investment objectives and character of the account is a dishonest or unethical business practice.
11. Failure to provide full disclosure of the high-risk nature of penny stocks prior to purchasing the same in a client account is a dishonest or unethical business practice.
12. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 8-6-3(j), Code of Alabama 1975, the Alabama Securities Commission may suspend, revoke, deny, censor or bar any registrant if the Commission finds that the Order is in the public interest and the registrant has willfully violated or willfully failed to comply with any provisions of the act, or any rule or order of the Commission or registrant has engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business.

13. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 41-22-19(d) the Alabama Securities Commission may suspend the registration of a registrant for a period not exceeding 120 days without a hearing, if the Commission believes that there is a danger to the public welfare.
14. To allow the RESPONDENT to continue with the dishonest and unethical business practices as outlined above would be a danger to the financial welfare of his clients and a detriment to public investors.
15. This Order is appropriate in the public interest for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes of the Alabama Securities Act.

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the registration of RESPONDENT JAMES C. HULSEY, III be suspended for a period of 120 days.

Entered at Montgomery, Alabama this 27th day of March, 2001.
